Sir,

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE 28 MAY 1930 HASSAN.

Installation of the Photograph of Mr. Bellur Nanje-Gowda, Coffee Planter and District Board Member, in the Local Fund Dispensary at Sukravarsanthe.

I have the honor to state that Mr. Bellur Nanjegowda Coffee Planter and District Board member, Bykaravalli estate, constructed the Dispensary building at Sukravarsanthe, at his cost and handed it over to the Department. The Dispensary is now running in the building. Subsequently he has constructed a ward for inpatients and handed it over to the Department last year.

Mr. G.K.D.Vajranabhiah, District Board Member, Sravanabelgola moved a proposition stating that an oil painting or photograph of Mr. Bellur Nanjegowda coffee planter and District Board Member, Byakaravalli Estate and the donor of the Sukravarsanthe L.F.Dispensary building may be kindly caused to be put up, at the meeting of the Board held on 28th June 1928 and the Board unanimously accepted the proposition and further resolved that the photograph, may be installed in the Dispensary building and an expenditure of Rs 200/ may be incurred out of District Funds for the purpose. Mr. S. Venkata Rangam, B.A., B.L., formerly the Deputy Commissioner of this District also made a note in the Visitors' Book of that Dispensary that a portrait of the said donor Mr. Bellur Nanjegowda be kept in the building of the Hospital.

He is a well known coffee planter ofthe place, and a long standing Member of the Board and a philanthropist.

I therefore request that you will be so good as to kindly obtain early sanction of the Government in the matter of keeping the photograph of the gentleman in the said building and to incur an expenditure of Rs 200/- out of District Funds in this connection to cover the cost of the portrait and incidental expenses for the unveiling ceremony.

A copy of the resolution of the Board is enclosed.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

President,
District Board, Hassan.
